ORDER TERMINATING SUSPENSION

On December 18, 2012, the District of Columbia Board of Medicine (the "D.C. Board") issued a Consent Order on December 18, 2012. The Consent Order suspended the Respondent's license to practice medicine for a period of one (1) year from the date of the execution of the Consent Order. The Consent Order required that during the suspension the Respondent was required to complete twelve (12) hours of continuing medical education. The Respondent was also required to pay a $5,000.00 fine. The Consent Order ordered that should the Respondent apply for reinstatement of license, he shall submit a reentry plan that would include supervision of his D.C. practice for at least six (6) months.

On May 22, 2013, the Maryland State Board of Physicians and the Respondent entered into a Consent Order in which the parties, based upon the D.C. Board's Consent Order dated December 18, 2012, agreed to the suspension of the Respondent's license to practice medicine until such time as the D.C Board reinstated his license.<sup>1</sup>

On February 6, 2014, the D.C. Board issued a Termination Order which terminated the suspension of the Respondent's license to practice medicine that was imposed by the
